raleigh, north carolina

In the stillness of the chapel,
we bow our heads in wordless supplication, and our hearts are locked together in the unity of our common prayer...our common quest.

• • •

The rapid bidding in a bridge game, committee meetings, club activities...another form of learning, the basis of the student.

We arise in the hushed hours of the dawn and steal silently to work. We drink coffee while nodding over our books in the still watches of the night. Frolicking abates... finals are near.

tomorrow makes today a yesterday.

The highpitched yell of a Rex basketball fan, the gay call of "C'mon, les eat"... the lyrics differ; the melody is the same. The song of youth... enjoying itself.

we honor

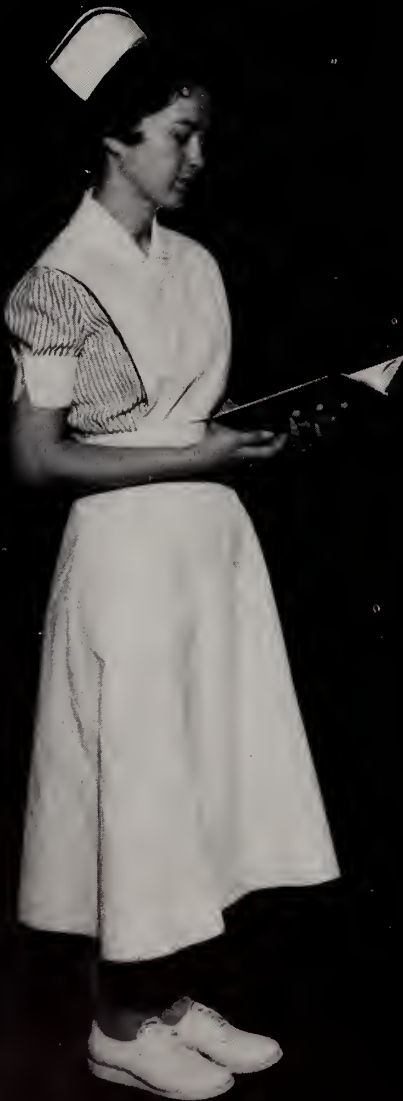

To-day, I'm a nurse—it seems but a dream
I can hardly believe that it's true
My training is done - I have come to the end
And my first grateful thought is, of you.

You, my parents, who helped me so much on the way;
You whose love and whose faith was so strong.
Yours the kindness, the courage, the praise that was there
In times when the way seemed so long.

I know that you're proud, today as you see
Your nurse - just so late your wee tot,
But my pride in you rings as strong in my heart.
God love you - and bless you a lot.

This is only a verse - just a "thank you" in rhyme
But its accents are happy and glad
For it tells of the love that in gratitude comes
From a graduate nurse to her Mother and Dad.

and dedicate . . .

Only a few teachers can we students honestly designate as exceptional teachers.

They gain this distinction by qualifications of fairness, friendliness, sympathy, genuine concern for students.

For devotion to their profession beyond its actual demands, a disinclination to shirk responsibility, a thorough grasp of subject matter and an interesting and vital manner of presenting it, a way of making us as students realize the importance of learning.

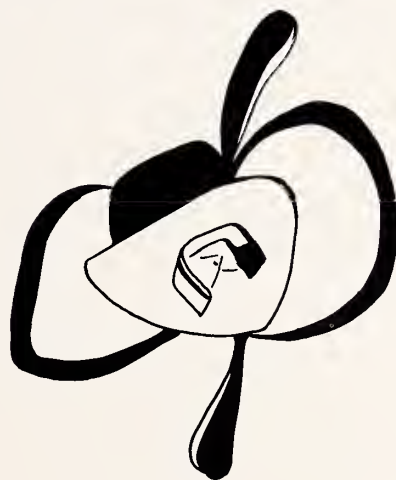

For being truly "professional minded" and "Student minded."

To one who has taught us to strive for victory and success, always with fairness and spirit; with earnest sincerity, we, the senior class of 1960, wish to dedicate our yearbook to MRS. BETTY LIGUORI.

class history

Oh, what a memorable day! To the class of 1960, Rex Hospital School of Nursing, this was August 27, 1957. That was the day that fifty-four of us left our homes and families to pursue our nursing careers.

We did not have long to think of being homesick. After a few days of orientation, we plunged into classwork. Our class was organized and our officers elected. How proud we were when we donned our blue striped dresses and white aprons for the first time. At last, after weeks of study and practice, our reward came in November when we were allowed to go to the hospital to arrange flowers and take temperatures. In December we were rewarded with a week of vacation and several days of hospital work.

After many more months of practice on Miss Chase, examinations, and tests, a happy group of girls received their caps at White Memorial Presbyterian Church on May 30, 1957. This was a time of happiness and also one of tears, as we realized that there were some who were with us at the beginning who were not in our number now.

We finally became a part of the hospital roster and began our many months of work. We saw a new addition to our hospital in the form of a new laboratory and X-Ray department that summer. More vacations and happy times followed.

How we looked forward to our Junior year. Two more years to go! This year was filled with classes and much hospital work for us. We began our special services, and in May the first group from our class went to Dorothea Dix Hospital for our Psychiatric training. The highlight in our social life this year was our Junior-Senior banquet and dance. Many of us spent long and happy hours working to make this a success.

On August 11, 1959, we were duly rewarded when we received those coveted black bands to brighten up our white caps. We really wore them with pride. Only one more year to go! Our one goal at this time was to graduate. Our senior year saw many of our classmates getting married and starting their families. Some of them dropped out during this year. Finally the long awaited day arrived. On August 19, 1960, we were graduated from the Rex Hospital School of Nursing. This was one of the happiest moments of our lives. After graduation, many of our classmates would be separated. Some would be staying at Rex, others going to such places as California and Virginia to work, and others going into the armed forces.

When we look back upon these three years of our lives, we will remember the wonderful friendships that have been formed and we will always be grateful to our parents, friends, instructors, doctors, and all of those people in each of our lives, who have helped to make these three years possible.

And now, on to State Boards!

Respectfully submitted
FRIEDA WIERSE, Class Historian

class poem

Vigor, vitality, vim and punch—
That's the student nurse!
The courage to act on a sudden hunch—
That's the student nurse!

The nerve to tackle the hardest thing,
With feet that climb, and hands that cling,
And a heart that never forgets to sing—
That's the student nurse!

Sand and grit in a concrete base—
That's the student nurse!
Friendly smile and an honest face—
That's the student nurse!
The spirit that helps when another's down,
That knows how to scatter the blackest frown,
That loves its neighbor and loves its town—
That's the student nurse.

To say "I will" - for you know you can—
That's the student nurse!
To meet each thundering knockout blow,
And come back with a laugh, because you know
You'll get the best of the whole show—
That's the student nurse.

and the future says . . .

It is 3 o'clock in the morning. The babies are sleeping, the mothers are sleeping, the aides are sleeping and so are the internes. You wonder about me! I'm on night duty (Dum De Dum Dum) for the thirty-fifth week. I can't sleep. The notice on the bulletin board plainly says so. I'll turn the notice over and catch a few winks anyway.

It is 3:09 1/2 A.M. There's a crash outside. I jump over the bassinets and run to the window. CLARA WILSON (driving her new Cat) just collided with PAT MULCAHA's MG. Pat is uninjured. She is still upstairs counting the numbers of bottles with Mrs. Story—Can't decide which color to send downstairs. (Dum De Dum Dum).

The only part of the car we can salvage is the radio. It's going full blast with Hamilton's new program, "Don't Step on My" Toes," starring JUDITH CASTLEBERRY singing "My Feet Are Too Large." Followed by MARTY BURTON'S "One Hundred and Twenty Questions."

3:15 A.M. There is another loud crash! It's JEANIE JOHNSON, who just dropped everything, including a retractor she was holding for Dr. Neal, and struck out for a sale she just heard about in "Gerner." Everything reduced half price. She never misses one. (Dum De Dum Dum)

My nerves are shattered! I turn the dial. It is 3:36 A.M. One of MARTHA TRIPP'S Rock and Roll Programs is on the air. The program is interrupted by a news flash—three patients just escaped from Dix Hill. The catastrophe has the new supervisor, VERCIE ELLER, standing on her head. Just as I thought, she's "crazy" about her work. (Dum De Dum Dum)

An ambulance just drove up. BETTY COBBS is at the wheel. Her assistant SANDRA PARKER, is flaked out in the rear. What happened? A bedpan fell on her head dropped by ANN LANGSTON.

I picked up a newspaper lying in the foot of the ambulance. On the front page in bold print I read that JEAN LINTHICUM is trying for the fourth time to swim the English Channel. Keep up the good work, Jean! (Dum De Dum Dum)

3:41 A.M. I flip over to the Want Ad Section. "Wanted" Social Hostess position at the T.L.C. Fraternity—No salary required—only room and board—signed JOYCE JOHNSON and KAY TAYLOR. "Wanted" Time and place to get hitched—signed MARTHA MOTE. "Wanted" Two babysitters for three weeks while husband and wife fly to Hong Kong for their second honeymoon—signed MR. and MRS. DICKIE MOORE and MR. and MRS. JOHN DANIELS. "Wanted" Secretarial position and adequate salary—25 years old—no experience and no bad habits—signed ANN PURSER. "Wanted" Teaching position, preferably Spanish—no other language necessary. R.S.V.P. signed SARAH HOGAN. "Wanted" Job as midwife in Kentucky—know all the tricks—signed RUTH MITCHELL.

I scan the page. My eyes bulge—"For Sale" One worn and slightly used husband and two offsprings—cheap—see owner MRS. FORD SHEPHERD. Next item—"For Sale" Two army uniforms with fatigues—underwear to match—fit any size—call PO 4134, Lt. and MRS. GENE SANDERS. "For Sale" One chicken farm consisting of two chickens—plenty of corn to feed 'em with. Call 3412 MRS. CLAYTON MURPHY.

As I looked on I saw other outstanding information. "Information." Free hair cuts given every other Monday night—Call MRS. BAREFOOT for an appointment. "Information" Dancing lessons at ANN DOCKERY'S STUDIO—Price $20.00 for five lessons—teacher—FAITH WOODCOCK—call AE 3-1336. At the bottom of the page I see where BUNNY WILLIAMS is flying ALICE FRAZIER (seeking Alimony) to Reno in her private plane for the third time. Also I see MARY HOBBS VALENTINE now Mrs. McIntire has opened up a large casino in Las Vegas and none other than JANE EARP as her partner.

It is now 4:00 A.M. I still can faintly hear that blasting radio. The announcer stated that MARY PARKER and VIRGINIA HOLLOMAN would be singing in New York for the next two weeks—"none other than Opera." I was so sleepy when I heard the next programs would be sponsored by FRANCES BRADSHAW now Mrs. Nordan on "Understanding Husbands and Good Child Care" What a Scream!!

I heard the door open—now 4:24 1/2 A.M. SUE WALTERS is just coming off her date—bubbling over with excitement—she saw the revised movie, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" with LINDA EASTEP playing the leading role.

4:30 A.M. What's that I smell—it's smoke!! SYLVIA WELSH Head Nurse on Third East just exploded (after a run in with Dr. Webb) setting the hospital on fire. "Clang, Clang, Clang," —MARGIE BROOKS driving her fire truck just ran over three pedestrians; one adult and two kids, rushing to the fires.

5:07 A.M. Everything is under control now—only damage—several crushed egos.

Someone hit me with a pint—felt more like a quart—no, it's a milk bottle. Just PATSY HOWELL and her friendly greetings. She helps "Johnnie" drive a milk wagon—To show my appreciation I climb in beside her. She really tells me all the news.

5:35 A.M. We pass a little woman sitting on the curb—who is that? It is Mrs. Kirkman—she has suffered with insomnia for some time.

Patsy dropped me off at the corner. I saw, ANN ROUSE and PEGGY ABERNATHY stumble off the bus. Ann is Head Nurse in the ER and Peggy on First West.

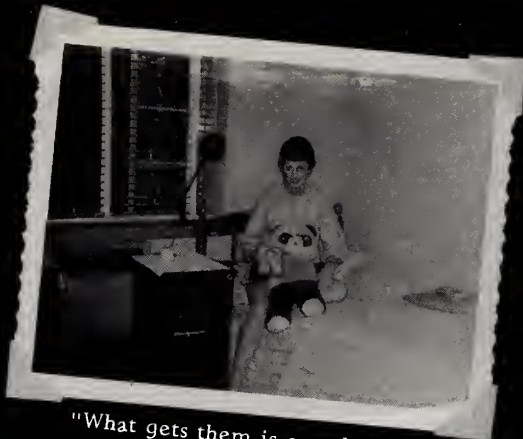

6:00 A.M. The babies are awake, the mothers awake, the aides awake, and so are the interns (they left three hours ago). You wonder about me? I'm awake too. Miss Cheek just woke me! Oh! No! What a life!! (Drag a Hair Net) (Dum De Dum Dum)

FAYE MEADOWS

"I'm not the slightest inconvenient."

"So, then I became PRN..."

"No, incontinence does not mean he's gone abroad."

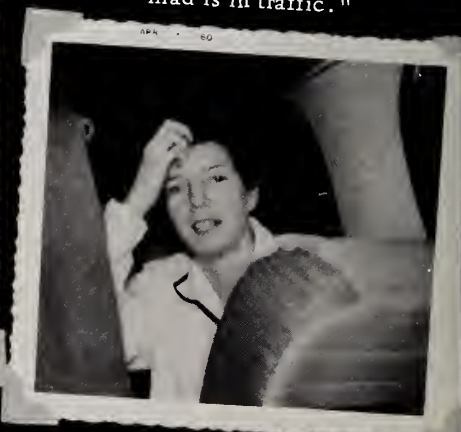

"The easiest place to drive yourself mad is in traffic."

"The shape of things to come."

"So then Dr. Hamilton sez... SISTER!!"

"All great men are dying; I don't feel so well myself."

"Just played a hunch."

"Two A.M. ! I hope

The purpose of this organization shall be to regulate all matters pertaining to life of women of the Rex Hospital School of Nursing not under the jurisdiction of the faculty, to increase a sense of individual responsibility; and to co-operate with the faculty in creating and maintaining high ideals in the nurses of Rex Hospital School of Nursing.

SANTA FILOMENA is a National honorary group, recognizing achievement and promoting leadership, into which members are tapped once a year. Not only is scholarship important in the choosing of these students, but also the ways in which they have proven themselves outstanding nurses. At the Banding ceremony each August, a small gold pin is presented in recognition of their very exceptional bedside nursing. The purpose of this organization is to promote better nursing and higher nursing standards.

This organization was begun in February, 1957, and has proven to be an important element in providing a well rounded program for student nurses. Monthly meetings are held and the entire student body is invited to attend, at which many varied and interesting programs are available.

A highlight of the year is the summer state-wide conference, at which time students from the various schools throughout the state convene and share ideas and projects. Jobie Sanders, from Rex, served as state president.

national convention delegates

Representing our school at the National Student Nurses' Convention in Miami, Florida, were Judith Castleberry, Jobie Sanders, Faye Meadows, Yvonne Fincher, Anne Hatton, Jo Richardson, and Nancy Langley. Interest and participation in our school program plus a congenial personality were necessary factors in their selection. Student Nurses from all over the United States, including Hawaii were present, combining interest ideas, and ideals. Uniforms and caps of every description could be seen on "Uniform Morning" - one of the highlights of the meeting. Ninety-eight North Carolina students traveled together by train, representing one of the largest delegations present.

Junior-Senior Dance

Many interesting and lovely social activities are planned for the student body by Mrs. Keller and our social chairmen. These include such highlights as: Halloween Costume Frolic, Semi-Formal Dances, Christmas Party, Valentine Formal, St. Patrick's Day Sock Hop, Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance, Capping Reception, Coffee hours, afternoon teas, and Bridge Classes. Our thanks to Mrs. Keller for very effectively planning and directing our many activities, which aid in our over-all development.

How do I admire thee?
 The reasons fall from my lips
 I admire thee for thy beauty of face
 I admire thee for thy movements of grace
 Thy loving kindness, tender care
 The faith you place in fervent prayer
 Inspires me to a height I never dreamed of coming near
 You set your sights in Heaven and by a star you steer
 I see thy neatness, thy efficient ways
 Thy cheerful smile which lifts the haze
 Of loneliness and pain upon the halls
 Thy quiet confidence which never falls.
 My admiration rises when I see
 The friendliness you show to ones like me
 And yet you set example for us, too,

And I suppose
 You have your times of loneliness and fear
 But it never shows
 And thy purpose always seems quite strong and clear.
 How do I admire thee?
 As an ideal nurse
 Thy qualities are such that we
 Pay tribute on this night to thee
 By giving unto thee the name
 That in our realm of life means fame
 Miss Rex, our Queen of Hearts,
 Our maiden fair.

... second in state

... fans have traveled out of town to enjoy a "stimulating game on the court." This year, the team placed second in the State Gold Medal Tournament. Several girls were named for outstanding performance.

For all the many, many times they have needed to say, "Puhleeeze turn down that radio, you forgot to sign in Miss Screenberry, this room is a sight, please get the clothes racks off the hall, who needed that lightbulb, I just happen to have one more sewing machine needle, and WHEW!" — Please accept our thanks for a job WELL DONE...

to the hill . . .

Student Nurses' Residence, Dorothea Dix Hospital, Raleigh, N. C.

Each student spends three months of her training at Dix Hill in Raleigh, N. C. thereby acquiring experience in Psychiatric Nursing. Students from various schools in North Carolina live and learn together during the three months and we come "home" with many interesting and happy experiences stored in our "memory" from our days at "the hill..."

A typical bridge game while waiting for supper hour, a date, and maybe just an evening of relaxation.

Now every twig and limb are encased in glowing crystal, and we stand with awe in the midst of the mystery and majesty of the winter world.

One to grow on . . .

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.

We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.
